

Southern Nevada ILG Board of Directors

Flossie Christensen
SVP, Human Resources Director
Bank of Nevada

Flossie Christensen is the Senior Vice President, Human Resources Director for Bank of Nevada with assets of approximately 3 billion. Her direct responsibility encompasses developing policies and procedures for human resources, organizational planning and development, hiring and implementing on-boarding procedures, training, employee relations, safety and health, and employee services. She has held this position for over 10 years and prior to working at Bank of Nevada she worked for a previous financial institution in Human Resources as the Vice President/HR Manager for over 27 years.

She is the Chairperson of the Southern Nevada Industry Liaison Group and Board member of the QuadA/AILG. Flossie attended UNLV and Community College of Southern Nevada and graduated from the Human Resources Graduate School in Boulder, Colorado.

Flossie has taught several Human Resources related classes for the American Institute of Banking. She is a member of the Southern Nevada Human Resources Association. She also has participated in many community outreach programs such as: Academy of Finance through Ed W. Clark High School, the Summer Business Institute through the Urban and Housing Development, the Gamma Phi Delta African American and Hispanic Career Days held through the Clark County School District.